

About the Space

<onlyinclude> 44 Edge Street was the first home of HAC:Man, and is located above Teacup, which is just 2 doors down from Madlab.

The space had several areas, including 2 workshops, the electronics workbench, and the main social table(s).

Access to the space was through the door on Edge Street, which has a big 44 above it, as well as our sign in the window above that.
